Which means of transport can I use in Prague?

For transport around Prague please see the link of Prague Public Transport Company, a.s. where you can find all the necessary informations, maps and journey planners: <http://www.dpp.cz/en/>

Generally, you can travel by METRO (lines A, B, C), TRAMS and BUSES/METROBUSES – all these transport networks are completely interconnected. There is also night public transport.

How much does the Prague transport cost?

Basic public transport ticket for 90 min. costs 32 CZK (ca. 1,2 EUR) for 1 adult (the same price also for students). You can buy it in tobacconists or in the metro stations (there are ticket vending machines) or directly in the bus (here you will only pay a slightly higher price of ticket)

Short-term ticket (for 30 min.) costs 24 CZK (ca. 0,9 EUR) for adult and student.

1-day ticket costs 110 CZK (ca. 4 EUR) and 3-days ticket costs 310 CZK (ca. 11 EUR)

For complete transport costs and conditions please see the link:

<http://www.dpp.cz/en/fares-in-prague/>

And how about taxi in Prague?

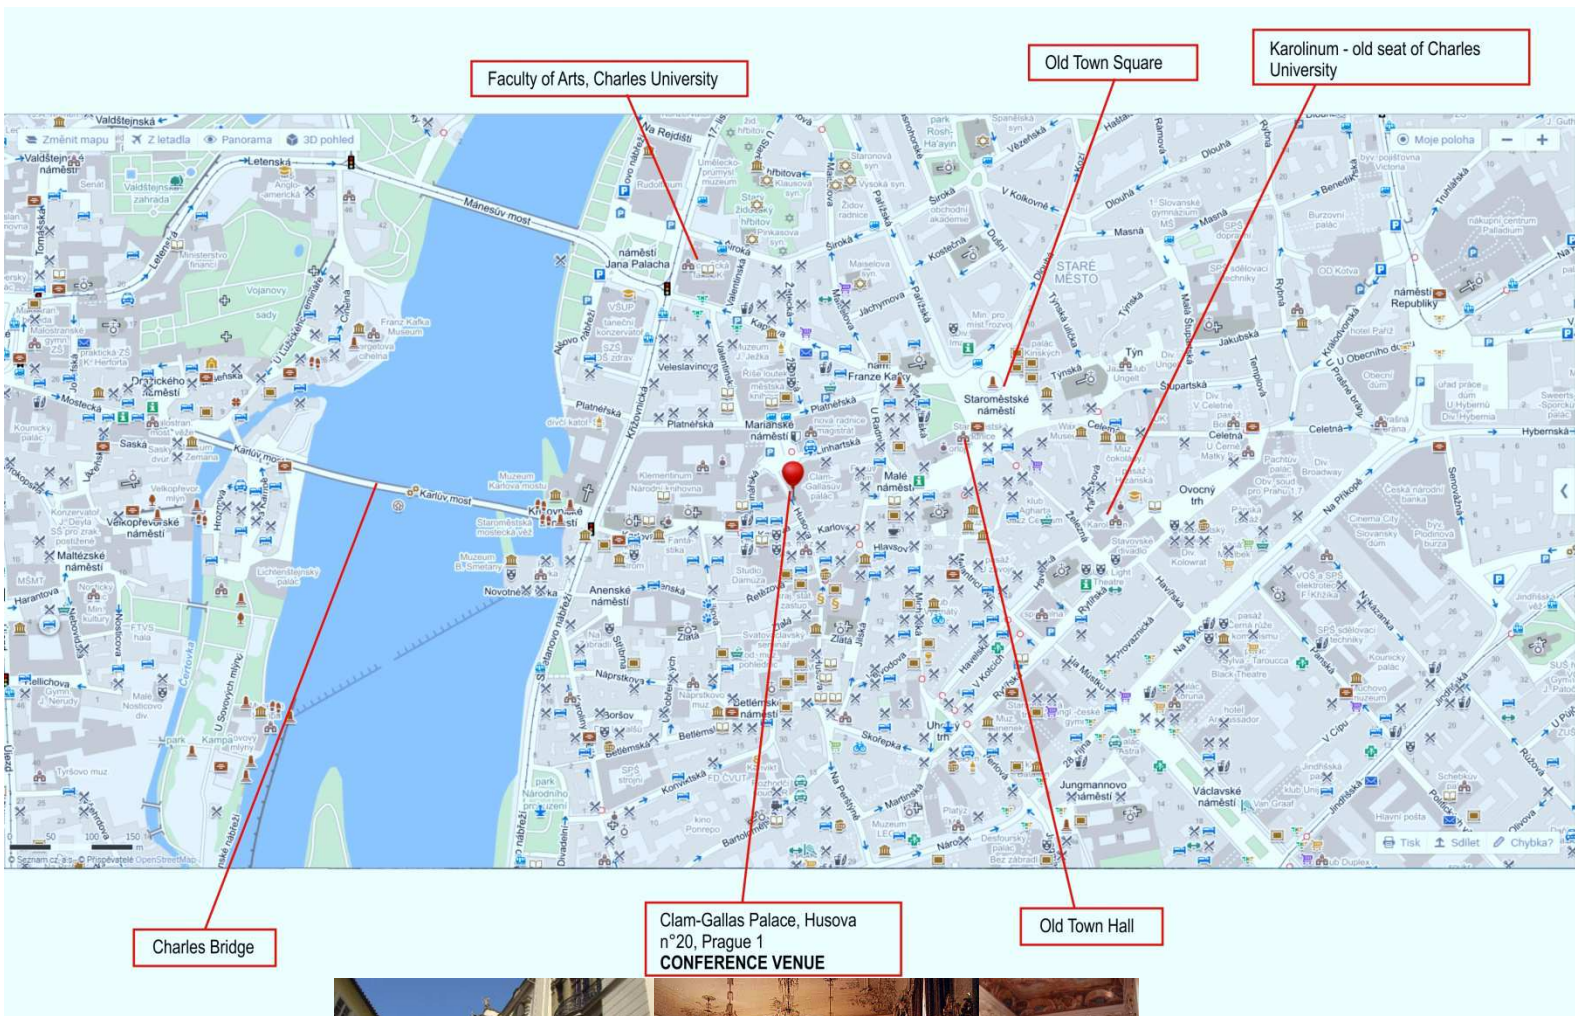

You can see official taxi services published on the Prague Airport website:

<http://www.prg.aero/en/parking-transport/transport/official-taxi/>

There are many other TAXI services, but it is recommended to ask for the price (at least approximative) or tariff before your trip.
